

TRIP CANCELLATION POLICY

Revisions Approved by the Board of Directors on 3/26/2018

1. A cancellation date for each trip will be published in the club newsletter and on trip promotional notices. If one is not published, the cancellation date will be 30 days before departure.
2. If Mt. High cancels the trip, you will receive any available refund up to your full amount paid.*
3. If you cancel your reservation before the cancellation date you must tell the trip captain by e-mail prior to the cancellation date to be eligible for a refund. Mountain High Snowsport Club will make every effort to refund the full amount of deposits; however, there may be circumstances beyond the club's control preventing a 100% refund – see note below.*
4. If you cancel your reservation after the cancellation date, you will forfeit some or all of your money paid. See note below.*
5. If you do not adhere to the payment schedule, you are subject to being bumped and forfeiting your full deposit. See note below.*
6. Funds for trips canceled by the participant after the cancellation date cannot be transferred to other club activities.
7. All refunds will be held until the books have been closed on the trip and it has been determined that there were no losses incurred because of your cancellation.

* As a general rule, the club will attempt to refund all the money, especially before the cancellation date, but there could be circumstances beyond our control, such as: if we already sent some deposits that we cannot recover in the case of a cancellation, or if a ski area or a transportation company goes out of business, or files for bankruptcy, or a natural disaster hits, or any other such unforeseen event or circumstance. In such cases, if the club cannot recover our losses, the club's loss would have to be distributed equally among all the participants. In other words, the club will not incur any losses on your behalf.
