Idaho bus adventure

Feb. 17- 20, 2006. We will leave Portland on Friday morning, and return Monday evening. Monday is President's Day and we'll make use of it. This is a 4-day trip, with 3 days of skiing at:

1. Tamarack, the newest resort in the U.S.
2. Brundage Mt., well established ski area, ... sunnier than Sun Valley!
3. Anthony Lakes, a convenient stop on the way home.

All three have a variety of terrain, from easy cruisers to some great tree skiing!

We need to leave early on Friday, to arrive in Idaho by dinner time. We will then spend 2 nights and 2 days in the town of McCall, skiing at nearby Tamarack and Brundage Mountain. On the way back, we'll break the journey for a night in Baker City and a day of skiing at Anthony Lakes.

Price: Approx. $250 for lodging and transportation, plus a total of $109 for lift tickets if you ski all 3 days. This is based on about 30 people. The price will go down by about $3 for each additional 2 people above 30! Contact:

Linda McGavin, Lindam@mcewengisvol.com or Emilio Trampuz, Emilio2000@earthlink.net.

Don't wait. Sign up now. Simply send in your reservation deposit of $100 made out to Mountain High snowsport club - and clearly mark it "For Idaho trip". If you wish to send in your annual membership fee and/or the PACRAT racing fee at the same time, feel free to do so. A single check for the total amount is fine.
